

DISCOVERY EDUCATION AND THE TEXAS DEN LEADERSHIP COUNCIL CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO JOIN US FOR A

TCEA PRE-CONFERENCE DAY OF DISCOVERY

Discovery Education and the Texas DEN Leadership Council proudly present a Day of Discovery at the Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum on Tuesday, February 9, 2010. This Day of Discovery will provide Texas educators and welcomed guests with an exciting and enriching day of professional development focused on creative ways to engage your students using digital media and curriculum resources from Discovery Education. During the day, participants will learn how they can enhance their lessons and student engagement by creating multimedia presentations, digital stories, and virtual field trips!

Breakfast refreshments and lunch will be provided and the day will conclude with prizes and fun (Texas Theater style)!

When: Tuesday, February 9, 2010

Where: Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum, Austin

Time: 8:30 – 3:30pm (registration will begin at 8:00)

Cost: Free! (not including parking which is available for $8 in the museum garage)

Space is limited, so register today!

Visit <http://links.discoveryeducation.com/TCEA2010> to register.

Contact Justin Karkow at Justin_Karkow@discovery.com for more details.

Discovery Education provides engaging digital resources to schools and homes with the goal of making educators more effective, increasing student achievement, and connecting classrooms and families to a world of learning. With more than half the schools in the country using these digital resources, and over 30 million students already affected by this content, come and see what empowers our classroom teachers today.

Connect to the Power of Discovery and Discovery Educators!

