

DISCOVERY EDUCATION CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO

A DAY AT THE PARK WITH DISCOVERY EDUCATION

Discovery Education and the Discovery Educator Network Texas Leadership Council are pleased to present a Day at the Park with Discovery Education. Located at the home of the Houston Astros, this Day of Discovery will provide educators and welcomed guests with an exciting and enriching day of professional development focused on creative ways to engage your students with digital media.

Lunch will be provided and the day will conclude with fun and prizes!

When: Saturday, July 25, 2009

Where: Minute Maid Park, 501 Crawford St, Houston, TX

Time: 8:30–3:30 (followed by an opportunity to attend batting practice)

Cost: Free! (this does not include parking or admission to the game afterward)

Space is limited so use the link below to register today:

<https://discoveryed.wufoo.com/forms/a-day-at-the-park-with-discovery-education/>

Contact Justin Karkow at Justin_Karkow@discovery.com for more details.

Discovery Education provides engaging digital resources to schools and homes with the goal of making educators more effective, increasing student achievement, and connecting classrooms and families to a world of learning. With more than half the schools in the country using these digital resources, and over 30 million students already affected by this content. Come and see what empowers our classroom teachers today.

Connect to the Power of Discovery and Discovery Educators!

