

The Rising Power will soon be in theaters nationwide! You must develop a movie trailer that will make people want to see this documentary film. Use the frames below to sketch out the trailer. It should help the audience understand the roles of prominent people, policies, and events that led to the emergence of the United States as a world power. Include titles, narration, and music on the lines below each frame. Explain on the back of the page why you chose the scenes, titles, narration, and music that you did. Describe how your choices tell the audience about the people, policies, and events that made the United States a world rising power.
